We the nature lovers

Author: suresh gilorkar
Illustrators: Archana Sreenivasan, Priya Kuriyan

Priya was 10 years old girl, She lived with her family at a small town. She was enjoying her summer holidays

Everyday she used to play with her friends under a big tree at her town

One day she planned to plant a tree in her garden with her bird friend,Meena

In evening Priya told everything to her Parents .She was very curious about importance of plants.She asked her father about that.

Then her father explained her that plants gives us oxygen by which we breath,they purify our air,they gives us food and without them our life is not possible.

After listening to her father,Priya replied that she will plant more and more trees and encourage her friends for tree plantation
